IACS WEBINAR 2023 : POWER, DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS & CONFLICTS OF INTEREST SITUATIONS

Introduction

Section 211 of the Companies Act 2016 ("the Act") entrenches the Board of Directors' responsibilities for managing and directing the business and affairs of a company. Although such responsibilities confer great powers on company directors, they are also entrusted with various duties under the Act requiring company directors to act for a proper, in good faith and in the best interests of the company. Nevertheless, being human beings, any group of individuals given such powers and responsibilities may find themselves facing conflicts of interests situations. As company directors, managing and dealing with conflicts of interest situations require vigilance and integrity.

Course Objectives

This workshop therefore shares with participants on the powers, duties and responsibilities of company directors under the Act and using illustrations and examples from case laws and legal precedent to enable accountants, auditors and company secretaries to remind the directors on these aspects.

Course Content

- Common law and statutory duties of a company director
- Responsibilities of a company director
- Rights of a company director
- Conflicts of interest situations and Bursa Malaysia's guidance on conflicts of interests
- Best practices for disclosure of interests
- Secretary's role in managing conflicts of interests

Learning Outcome

By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to –

- Understand the provisions of the Act which govern the issues discussed
- Apply the case law principles which have been presented for illustration
- Learn to implement the best practices for the practical issues

Who Should Attend

Company secretaries, company directors, corporate professionals, corporate administrators, business managers, administrators and professionals involved in corporate advisory work and practice.
