IACS WEBINAR 2024 :

AMENDMENTS TO THE PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION ACT 2010 – WHAT SECRETARIES SHOULD KNOW AND PREPARE FOR

Introduction

On 16 July 2024, the long-awaited Personal Data Protection (Amendment) Bill 2024 ("the Amendment Bill") was passed in the Dewan Rakyat. The Amendment Bill imposes new obligations and responsibilities on data users and data controllers. New guidelines have been or will be introduced by the Commissioner of the JPDP (Jabatan Perlindungan Data Peribadi). The new obligations will require organisations to review their data protection policies and allocate new resources to their data compliance program. Company secretaries should update themselves about the changes to the PDPA and advise and/or assist their clients on the amendments to avoid any breaches or penalties imposed.

Course Objectives

This 4-hours webinar seeks to highlight the key amendments to the PDPA and how organisations should assess and evaluate their current PDPA compliance programs and policies.

Course Contents

A short overview of the key changes are as follows –

- Criteria replacement of the term “Data Users” with “Data Controllers”
- Recognition of Biometric Data as Sensitive Personal Data
- Increased penalties
- Extension of the Security Principle to Data Processors
- New Data Protection Officer Appointment obligations
- New Mandatory Data Breach notification obligations
- Right to Data Portability
- Removal of whitelisting regime for Cross-Border Data Transfers

Learning Outcome

By the end of the webinar, participants will be able to assist their Board of Directors, management and the company to implement the following:

- A meticulous review of current data protection practices
- The appointment of competent Data Protection Officers
- The implementation of robust data security measures
- Drafting of a personal data policy that is in line with the PDPA
