IACS SEMINAR 2025:

PRACTICAL WORKSHOP ON CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING & THE ROLE OF THE COMPANY SECRETARY

Introduction

A company is a dynamic business entity which involves some important stakeholders such as the company's directors, members and creditors. The interaction of these stakeholders sometimes requires a restructuring at the company level and the Company Secretary plays an important role in facilitating and organizing the restructuring. The Company Secretary should also be involved in advising the directors and members in the corporate restructuring and apply the knowledge and experience gained to the exercise.

Objectives of This Seminar

This full day seminar will be assessing the various corporate restructuring exercises involving various parties and the legal and practical issues involved.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the seminar, participants will be able to:

- Realise company secretaries are a master of many disciplines
- Improve their capability and competency in offering advice and consultancy on corporate restructuring
- Assist their clients, employers and associates in dealing with the issues and scenarios arising from the restructuring
- Be confident and competent in their practice

Course Outline

This seminar will be assessing and reviewing the following corporate restructuring exercises–

- Adopting a constitution to replace the Memorandum & Articles of Association – what should be retained from the Memorandum & Articles of Association
- Acquisition or disposal of undertaking or property of substantial value between companies with common directors and common shareholders – is compliance with Section 223 sufficient?
- Transfer of the company's asset by way of a dividend in specie – considering it from a dividend point of view or a Section 228 compliance matter
- Acquisition or disposal of non-cash assets and shares between a company and a related party – is compliance with Section 228 sufficient? What should also be considered?
- Loans to directors and persons connected to directors – what to consider and include in the transaction
- Issue and allotment of shares – consideration and approval process – pitfalls and challenges
- Transfer of shares – the pitfalls and caution to be exercised by the Company Secretary
- Decoupling of the holding and subsidiary – the process and procedure
- Powers of directors in a company under winding up – assessing the case of Global Mariner Offshore Services Sdn. Bhd. & Ors v TH Heavy Engineering Berhad [2025]
