IACS WEBINAR 2026 :

A REVIEW OF CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS – WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HOW IT IS TREATED IN A NON-PUBLIC LISTED COMPANY AND A PUBLIC LISTED COMPANY

Introduction

At common law, a director must not place himself in a situation where his personal interest may or actually conflict with his duty to act in the interest of the company. An example of a conflict of interest “COI” is where there is a disposal of the company's assets to or the acquisition of assets by a company from its director(s) or person(s) connected to such director(s). The common law states that directors may be held liable for a breach of fiduciary duty unless shareholders' approval or ratification at the general meeting has been obtained in respect of the COI transactions.

Course Objectives

This 4-hours webinar will assess the difference between how COI is treated in a non-listed company and a public-listed company by reviewing what constitute related party transactions and the disclosure requirements.

Course Contents

This webinar will cover the following :

- Sections 218, 224, 225 and case laws related to it
- What Table A contains in terms of COI
- Section 228 and its restrictions.
- The disclosure requirements under the Companies Act 2016.
- The disclosure requirements under the Listing Rules.
- Adoption of COI policy and best practices related thereto.

Learning Outcome

By the end of the webinar, participants will be able to –

- Understand what is meant by COI and related party transactions
- Know the provisions of the Act related to COI
- Identify COI transactions and situations
- Draft a practical COI policy
- Learn to manage the issues of COI and related party transactions

THE APPROVED COMPANY SECRETARIES DIGEST: SERIES 2

The Company Secretary: Duties, Responsibilities and Work Scope

Institute of Approved Company Secretaries (IACS) was incorporated in Malaysia on 16 May 1996 as a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital under the Companies Act.

Through the dedicated efforts of the IACS Publication Board, the Institute has published this second series of the IACS Digest Series entitled 'The Company Secretary: Duties, Responsibilities and Work Scope'. The objective of the IACS Digest Series is to provide IACS members with information on company law and practice and corporate governance and related areas through materials and publications designed in handy and readers digest format for easy reference and guidance in their secretarial work.

Authored by two IACS members, this book depicts and discusses the duties, responsibilities and work scope of the company secretary as required under the Companies Act, 2016, the various regulations and codes, beneficial ownership framework and other compliance requirements. In the book, the authors have included the latest amendments to the Companies Act, 2016, AML/CFT/CPF and TFS for DNFBPs and NBFIs Policy Document (effective 6th February 2024) where the company secretary is to be involved in assisting the board of directors to meet the compliance requirements in anti-money laundering.

Written in clear and simple language, it is hoped this book will provide the readers with an insightful knowledge of what the company secretaries are required to perform in the 21st century.
